WHAT IS PVR?

The Personal Video Recorder (PVR) features let you watch TV the way you want. You can pause, reverse, or skip back through a program. Then you can continue watching TV. Also, you can record and play back programs with full digital audio and video quality, without a VCR.

For example, if you get a phone call while you watch a live or pre-recorded program, you can pause the program, talk on the phone for an hour, restart the program, and not miss any of the action.

You can move through a program forward and backward in slow motion or frame-by-frame while using the PVR's auto recording features while watching live or recorded programs.

PAUSING A PROGRAM

1. Find a program to watch.
2. Press PAUSE to pause the program.
3. Press PLAY to watch the program from where it paused.
4. Press VIEW TV to go back to live TV.

On some TVs, the presence of fixed images for extended periods of time may cause them to be permanently imprinted on the screen. Consult your TV user's guide for information on whether this is a problem for your TV, what operating/viewing restrictions apply to avoid this problem, and associated TV warranty coverage.

For a live program, the on-screen pause timer shows how long you've paused the program. The pause timer shows how far you're behind the live program. You can pause up to one hour for a live program. If you think you might be away from the TV for more than an hour but don't want to miss any of the program, consider recording the program (see page 8-5).

Press FWD twice to forward at 15 times normal speed, three times to forward at 60 times normal speed, and four times to forward at 300 times normal speed. The on-screen bar shows how far you've gone.
